2. PRODUCT SNAPSHOT

What exactly is the product?

Fuel Nutrition's flagship product is a scientifically formulated protein powder, designed for holistic wellness.

What does it do and how does it work?

It provides a potent blend of easily absorbable nutrients that support beauty, health, and overall well-being, with benefits such as improved skin, hair, and nail quality.

What problem does it solve?

It addresses the need for a comprehensive beauty and health supplement, allowing users to nourish their bodies from within, thus enhancing outward appearance and overall vitality.

Who is it meant for?

Primarily targeted at women who are health-conscious and interested in beauty and wellness, ranging from young adults to middle-aged individuals.

3. CURRENT LISTING CHALLENGES

What's broken or underwhelming about the current Amazon listing, brand positioning, or creative execution?

The listing appears generic and lacks a premium feel. Key benefits are not communicated clearly, leading to low conversion rates, especially on mobile platforms.

Where are they losing conversions or attention?

The lack of differentiation and clear communication of benefits hampers the product's competitive edge, resulting in missed opportunities to capture and retain customer interest.

4. TARGET CUSTOMER DEEP DIVE

Gender, age range, location, income, profession:

Predominantly female, aged 25-45, likely residing in urban areas with a middle to upper-middle-class income. They are professionals or stay-at-home moms with a focus on personal care.

Life stage or identity:

Busy professionals, wellness enthusiasts, and beauty-conscious individuals.

Pain points, desires, motivations:

Concerns over aging, hair loss, and maintaining a youthful appearance. Motivated by products that offer real, sustainable results without compromising on convenience.

How do they shop on Amazon? What do they care about when scrolling?

They look for authenticity, clearly defined benefits, social proof, and a premium brand experience. Mobile optimization is crucial as many shop on the go.

5. BARRIERS TO PURCHASE

Concerns about the product's efficacy and real-world results.

Skepticism towards supplements due to past experiences with ineffective products.

Uncertainty about the brand's positioning as a premium offering amidst generic competitors.
